

Independence Day

written by Dennis Roth (2005)

Verse 1

I heard you crying in the dark
„All is born to live“, you said and you wondered if you're dead
But you're living still instead
I know that you would find your way
'Cause you're also here to stay
The treasure you've already found
But you've lost the key

Verse 2

I heard you laughing in your dreams
„All is born to die“, you smiled and you wondered if you're alive
But you're growing every day
I know that you would find your way
'Cause you're also here to stay
The treasure you've already found
But you've lost the key

Chorus

Where have you been all the time?
Show the world what's going on in your mind (I wish you would)
What is the price you had to pay?
Show the world this is your Independence Day

Bridge

I've been looking out for you (heroes are hard to find)
I've been looking out for you (here's a heard to find)
Heroes are hard to find
And you're looking great tonight
